Building Our House
on the Rock. This past week marked 15 years since my wife and I bought
our house—14
years longer than
we planned to stay, 14 years longer
than we could afford to stay.
We're now

planning to sell our house and move
closer to the center of our city, near the Christian schools our boys
attend.

time, patience and hard work. But the wise man seems to have considered
such factors and to have believed it
would be worth the effort. Built into the rock, his house
could endure the inevitable storms
that would come.

Emmanuel Higgins.

There were once
two men, and each
needed to build a house. The first
man was foolish,

on sandy soil
where it was easy
to access and easy to dig the foundations. In a few short weeks he was almost finished. The second man was wise, and chose to build his house on a rocky hill, where it was very hard to
