The Erdmann Residence formally opened as the Friars Club Monastery in November 1957. In a grand gesture, Abbot Joe E. Lewis flung the keys to the front door into the street to symbolize that the doors would always be open. In 2004, the City of New York officially named East 55th Street, "Friars Way."

Heritage | The Friars Club

The Friars Club is a private club in New York City, founded in 1904 that hosts risqué celebrity roasts. The club's membership is composed mostly of comedians and other celebrities. It is located at 57 East 55th Street, between Park Avenue and Madison Avenue, in a building known as the Monastery.
