After reading, The Fire Seer (the first in the Coalition of Mage series) I had extremely high expectations for this book. Sadly, in my opinion it did not stand up to its prequel. The beginning was awkward. I know the author needs to catch everyone up from the first book, but I think this could have been done better.

We reported a modest excess of cancer cases in the WTC-exposed cohort. We remain cautious in our interpretation of this finding because the time since 9/11 is short for cancer outcomes, and the reported excess of cancers is not limited to specific organ types. As in any observational study, we cannot rule out the possibility that effects in the exposed group might be due to unidentified ...
