By: Eve Wilson. Based on the book, 'There's a Boy in the Girls' Bathroom', we created a life-size model of Bradley Chalkers drawing round one of the children. We then used clip art, their own drawings, quotes from the book and words / phrases to describe the good and bad side to his character. It was a great way of demonstrating how Bradley was changing as the book progressed - and brilliant for my less able kids who needed visual cues.

There used to be an empty chair at the back of my class, but now a new boy called Ahmet is sitting in it. He's nine years old (just like me), but he's very strange. He never talks and never smiles and doesn't like sweets - not even lemon sherbets, which are my favourite! But the truth is, Ahmet really isn't very strange at all.
